

I write to urge the FCC to pursue its mandate of keeping our communications fair and impartial by demanding net neutrality. In support of this essential component of our liberty, I urge you further to adhere to Title II guidelines.

Thank you for your serious consideration,

Roger Lebow and Wendy Schorr
Sierra Madre, California